Re: Kiran Chetry

Dear John:

This letter serves to inform you that Fox News is not interested in matching any prospective offers for employment which Kiran Chetry may receive and is therefore waiving its right to match under the Agreement between Fox News and Ms. Chetry. In fact, Ms. Chetry is free to leave Fox News prior to March 6th (the natural expiration of the Agreement) with no further compensation, should she choose to do so.

You have treated Fox News with such arrogant disregard that we do not desire to do any further business with you. You refused to enter into good faith negotiations despite your client's statements that she wanted to remain at Fox News and was happy with the remuneration we had offered. In addition, you and your client's unprofessional demand that we include a clause in her new agreement which would have been detrimental to other Fox News talent, is simply not the way we conduct business.

We had hoped that Ms. Chetry would have a bright future with the Fox News Channel, however this negotiation has now become more trouble than it is worth.

Please extend our best wishes to Ms. Chetry in her future endeavors.

Very truly yours,
